Dear Parents and Caregivers,

This week many hours of hard work come to fruition with the school musical performances. As a teacher and parent it is very rewarding seeing our children on stage performing. We hope you enjoy the musical and seeing your talented children on stage.

Last Friday I attended the Coffs Harbour Principal’s Network meeting. Throughout the day principals were engaged in workshop modules presented by former Balmain Tigers legend, Mr Wayne Pearce. The modules were based on the ‘Process Communication Model’. Principals developed a deeper understanding of the multitudes of personality traits and ways of working with these personalities to access the very best outcomes for everyone.

The school holidays commence next week. The school would appreciate the Bonville community to keep a watchful eye over the school. School resumes for all students on Tuesday 6th October.

Earn and Learn
Woolworth’s Earn and Learn program has now closed. The school is still accepting earn and learn stickers. Please bring them up to the school.

School Musical is THIS WEEK
Tickets are selling fast and are available from the office for $5 each. The musical will be on for two nights, Wednesday 16th and Thursday 17th September. The musical commences at 7pm sharp. We ask that children are dropped off in the library before 6:45pm.

Bouquet of flowers
Mrs Batten has done a tremendous job working with the main cast of the musical. Thank you Mrs Batten!

Coffs Harbour Lifeguards
Last Wednesday Coffs Harbour City Lifeguard, Alistair, gave a presentation to Years 3-6 about safety in our water ways including pools, creeks, dams and the beach.

Class K/1 Assembly
Please come along to the K/1 assembly this Friday from 2:20pm in the Memorial Hall.

Library News
Please return overdue library books. It is important that we keep library books in circulation for all children. Thank you.

P&C Fundraiser
The P&C are selling Tea-Towels designed by Bonville Public School students. The designer tea-towels, similar to those below, would make a great keep sake item or gift for a grandparent. Order forms for the tea-towel are to be returned by Friday 16th October. This is to ensure the tea-towels arrive well before the Christmas holidays.

School resumes on Tuesday 6th October.

Small school, large family, great results!

Enjoy your week.
